Duty to Prevent Insolvent Trading

< Section 588G of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)

[4.2.2250] A director is

[4.2.2250] A director is under a duty to prevent company from trading while insolvent.

A director breaches this duty if the director fails to prevent the company incurring debts if there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that it is insolvent. ¹ Subject to four alternative defences ² (see [4.2.2320]) contravening directors are liable to pay compensation to the company of an amount equal to the loss or damage suffered by unsecured creditors for the debts so incurred because of the company's insolvency: ³ see [4.2.2360]. In addition, contravention of s 588G of the Corporations Act 2001 Cth may result in the imposition of a civil penalty order (see [4.2.2340]) or criminal sanction pursuant to Pt 9.4B of the Act: ⁴ see [4.2.2350].
