

Westlaw International - Asia

Researching Hong Kong Content

Course Description

This session will guide you through effectively using Westlaw International (Asia) to research Hong Kong content, covering advanced search techniques, and a live demonstration to enhance your research skills. Join us to maximize your use of Westlaw International (Asia) for Hong Kong legal research.

By the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- Navigate the homepage to understand Hong Kong's content structure.
- Search for relevant legal content in Hong Kong.
- Use Terms and Connectors for search structuring.
- Apply post-search filters and tools to refine results.
- Use advanced search templates for efficient legal research.
- Set up Alerts for updates on legal topics.
- Learn about Westlaw's help features to enhance research skills.

Session Duration

30 minutes.

Session Delivery Method

Online via Microsoft Teams. Note: The Webinar session allows participants to view the trainer's computer screen. At no time does the trainer access your computer.

Learning Materials

Online help and support materials available from the Training and Support Portal

Training Specialist

The session is facilitated by a Thomson Reuters Training Specialist.