

Student Learning Webinars – WA/TAS

Semester Two Webinars: Join an interactive student learning webinar to boost your legal research skills with Thomson Reuters legal online products. Engage with our expert Trainers and enhance your legal research expertise today.

Course Name	Course Description	Date
Westlaw Australia Legal Research Essentials for Students Recommended: 1st year	The 45min session introduces Westlaw Australia and demonstrates efficient navigation techniques to quickly locate legal content including cases, legislation, journals and commentary.	24 July WA 1:00 - 1.45pm TAS 3:00 - 3:45pm
Westlaw Australia Cases Research for Students Recommended: 1st year	The 30min session focuses on effective methods to find cases in Westlaw Australia. Students will learn to use different methods to find cases using case citation, case name, legislation, keywords and Boolean terms & connectors. It also includes the Key Number System for finding cases by legal topic, and the use of the Advanced search template for targeted case law results.	5 August WA 1:00 - 1.30pm TAS 3:00 - 3:30pm
Westlaw Australia Advanced Legal Research Techniques Recommended: Final year law students Anyone seeking to enhance legal research skills	This 60min interactive workshop is designed for students to enhance their practical research skills by examining a legal research brief. We will discuss how to analyse the research brief and its requirements, create effective search queries, apply relevant Boolean terms & connectors, determine the use of the Global vs Advanced search templates, and step through each process to answer the research brief.	27 August WA 1:00 to 2pm TAS 3pm to 4pm
Introduction to Thomson Reuters AI Tools Recommended: Senior undergraduate law students (final years) Postgraduate law students Academic staff Library staff	This session demonstrates Thomson Reuters' AI Tools, including AI-Assisted Research in Westlaw Precision Australia, Search and Summarise in Practical Law workflows, enhance research accuracy and improve overall efficiency. Australia and the Legal AI Assistant, CoCounsel. Participants will learn how these technologies are being integrated into legal practice to streamline	5th August WA 10:30 to 11.15am TAS 12:30 to 1:15pm

Course	Description	Date
Legal Research Tips and Techniques for Librarians Recommended: Librarians involved in legal research and support	This interactive session equips law librarians with practical skills and strategies to efficiently perform and support diverse legal research tasks using Westlaw Australia. Participants will gain confidence in navigating the platform, sourcing authoritative materials, and assisting students and academics with complex research needs.	2 September WA 12pm to 1pm TAS 2pm to 3pm

Westlaw UK

Course	Description	Date
Westlaw UK – Research Essentials for Students	This 30-minute webinar provides essential skills for students to navigate the Westlaw UK platform. We will explore the breadth of content available and demonstrate effective research strategies including Natural Language and terms & Boolean connectors searching. Students will also learn how to retrieve, refine and manage relevant legal materials for academic and professional use.	6th August 12.30 – 1:00pm AEST

Westlaw Classic

Course	Description	Date
Westlaw Classic – Introducing International Legal Research for Students Recommended: students in second year or above, Postgraduate law students, Academic Teaching Staff or Librarians involved in legal research and support	This 30-minute webinar provides essential skills for students to navigate the Westlaw Classic platform. We will explore methods to carry out international research including cases, legislation, commentaries and journals. Participants will also learn how to retrieve, refine and manage relevant legal materials for academic and professional use.	7th August 4-4:30pm AEST